

SURFACE NAVY ASSOCIATION

VADM Robert L. Walters Scholarship Application

The Surface Navy Association Scholar receives an academic scholarship awarded for demonstrated leadership, community service, academic achievement and a commitment to pursuing higher educational objectives.

SELECTION QUALIFICATIONS

- Must be an SNA Member or dependent child, stepchild, ward or spouse of a current Surface Navy Association member. The member must be in their second or subsequent consecutive year of membership. *Note: SNA member must maintain current membership throughout scholarship award period if awarded.
- Member can be serving, retired or honorably discharged and must be a Surface Warfare Officer, Enlisted Surface Warfare Specialist, or a Permanent Cutterman. Qualified members must serve for a minimum of 3 years on surface ships of the U.S. Navy or U.S. Coast Guard, Officer or Enlisted. Surface ships include carriers, combatants, amphibious, service force, mine force, tenders, and U.S. Coast Guard cutters of all classes.
- The 3 years need not be consecutive but must have been served on active duty.
- There is no minimum service period for children or spouses of personnel who died on active duty while serving in a surface ship or cutter.
- Surface Navy Association scholarships are for studies in an accredited full-time undergraduate or postgraduate program. Fulltime status may be waived in the case of spouses as long as they maintain a course load of 6 semester hours.
- The Surface Navy Association will not discriminate on the basis of rank, race, color, sex, national or ethnic origin, or religion in the consideration and awarding of scholarships. Awards will be made on the basis of the individual's application, using a "whole person" concept, considering the candidate's scholastic proficiency, non-scholastic activities, scholastic and non-scholastic awards, leadership and character.

Candidate Essay Question Guidance

The purpose of the essay (in about one page – approximately 500 words) is to evoke information from the candidate in whichever of the following areas (or combination of them) he or she thinks answers the basic question: “Why me? Why should I be selected to receive a SNA Scholarship?”

The topics below are just suggestions. You can write whatever you desire to answer the question “why me?.” We want to provide you an opportunity to communicate with the scholarship selection committee and provide us with information you think the selection committee should have to give you our fullest consideration.

We look forward to receiving your application by March 1.

Who you are?

- What is important to you?
- How did/does having your father, mother or spouse in the Navy affect your life?
- Was your father or mother deployed a significant portion of your life? Explain how this has impacted/influenced your life.
- If spouse is the sponsor, what are the pluses and minuses for you?
- Do both your parents work? What do they do?
- How did/do family finances affect your life?
- Did you have to work to earn money for your expenses or to help your family?
- How many high schools did you attend? Did changing high schools affect your participation in certain academic classes or extracurricular activities, including clubs or sports?
- Number of siblings? What number child are you in your family?
- Do you have other brothers or sisters currently attending college?
- What is your motivation to go to college?
- Are you a “First Generation” college bound? What does this mean to your family?

Where you are going?

- What educational program/major do you hope to pursue in college? Why?
- Why do you want a college education?
- What do you want to do after you graduate?
- In what kind of career are you interested?
- Where do you think you will be ten years after graduation?

What you have done to get where you are?

- Academic successes (i.e.: Academic honors)
- Personal interests - extracurricular activities, clubs, sports, positions held, awards/recognition received
- Employment. Please list and explain what you did; hours per week
- Volunteer & Community Service at home and work

These are only suggestions for you to consider when you think about providing the committee with your essay. You may want to address a number of them, or none at all. It’s your choice.

In any case, thank you for your hard work in school, in helping others, and in your family. We know that people who know you are proud of you. We’re sure that we would be too if we knew you just a little better. We hope your essay will help us do just that, know you a little better.
